

You're the One

By Matt Case

PROVERBS 18:22 NASB

*He who finds a wife finds a good thing
And obtains favor from the Lord.*

Verse 1

And is it just a chance
You came across my window
And is it just a chance
You looked my way
And is it just a dream
You're sitting here beside me
And is this just my dream
Of you here with me

Chorus

And I believe that there's a God
Who took your heart and mine
And set us apart
And I believe that there's a love
That lives inside my heart
And is meant for only one
And you're the one

Verse

Now I would never want
To live this life without you
I would never want
To face another day
Cause you are more than what
I could ever wish for
And I want no other love
Than the love you have for me

Chorus

And I believe that there's a God
Who took your heart and mine
And set us apart
And I believe that there's a love
That lives inside my heart
And is meant for only one
And you're the one

Bridge

I believe that there's a God
Who took your heart and put it with mine
And I believe that my loves meant for you

Chorus

And I believe that there's a God
Who took your heart and mine
And set us apart
And I believe that there's a love

Ending

I believe that there's a God
Who took your heart and put it with mine
And I believe that my loves meant for you
