

Without Christmas

By Matt Case

Luke 2:10-11 NASB

10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be for all the people; 11 for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

Verse 1

I heard a young man say,
"Grandpa what's the point to all these decorations,
The point to all these Christmas day charades?
It seems like such a waste,
To celebrate the birth of one baby boy,
That happened so long ago, so far away."
The old man turned his head to look his way,
And in his heart he said a prayer "God, help me know just what to say".
And he said...

Chorus

Without a Silent Night, without a Holy night in Bethlehem
Without the angels singing joyfully to proclaim the First Noel
Without the manger bed to hold the newborn Savior of the World
Without Christmas, there's no Easter, and this is why, I celebrate His birth

Verse 2

So many souls today,
Put their joy in reindeer songs, and shopping malls,
A jolly man who drives a Christmas sleigh
But if they'd only see,
How the magic of this time of year, is simply joy of knowing Christ the King
The beauty of this season's peace on earth
Is the God made flesh who came to us as we celebrate His birth!

And on that night in Bethlehem, as the shepherds watched the angels sing, "behold the Great I Am!"
A star would show a holy light to declare the one who'd conquer death and give to man new life!
